I have so much praise and thankfulness in my heart for the many visits Pastor Bill and Pat, and Pastor Brock made to see Judy and me during her long illness. Their love and support meant so much. I am also thankful for the many cards and personal visits that my Pilgrim brothers and sisters made to Judy's visitation and funeral, as well as flowers and donations. I don't know how people without faith make it through times like this. It is so important that we strive to share our faith to those without it because we never know when our Lord will call us home. Blessings to all, God is Good.
